All Church Faith Forum: Immigration and
Deportation—How does our faith inform us?

Sunday, July 23rd
11:15 a.m. –Noon

After worship, the FBC family will gather to discuss these important and timely issues. This session will offer ample opportunity for everyone to ask questions about immigration and deportation in our country and share thoughts and responses. Please plan to attend and engage in the conversation – no need to have attended the first session to participate fully in this second session!

in the family....

Please hold Terri McFadden in your prayers. Terri suffered a heart attack in the middle of the night on Friday. She recognized the symptoms and got to the hospital quickly. She is now recuperating at home. What the doctor says she needs most is rest. As a church family, what would be most helpful for us to offer are our thoughts and prayers.

Looking Ahead....
