LIVING ROOM CONVERSATIONS:

HOW DO WE DEAL WITH POLITICAL DIFFERENCE?

This 3-part series will focus on how we can acknowledge our political differences while at the same time work together to build a better community and a stronger democracy.

We will hear from local community leaders and residents who will share stories about how they have bridged political divides and differences.

We will then gather in small, facilitated dialogue groups to share our own stories and experiences in order to deepen connections and create mutual understanding.
